Kerry Meyer, a protestor, was held in the student health center overnight for observation. A witness said about eight others attacked Meyer when the

POOR CHARLIE SAYS!

We are told that idle young men are sometimes needy old men in the making.

IOWA JUSTICE?

It doesn't take a newspaperman very long in the business to learn not to say, "Now I've heard everything." No sooner are the words printed when - sure enough-along comes something to top them all.

Such is the wire-service news story out of Eddyville, Iowa which, if the facts are right, is so far- out that it strains our credulity.

It appears that Mr. and Mrs. Edward Briney, of said Eddyville, stopped a thief from completing the crime of burgularizing their home. The thief was arrested and brought into court but he "copped a plea" and was let off with a $50 fine and no jail sentence. ("Copping a plea," a favorite device of experienced criminals, means that rather than stand trial and risk conviction for the crime committed, you plead guilty to a lesser crime.) His boss of the eskimo family. So there's no use going north, intended victims, the Brineys, however, have lost their 80 either." acre farm; and they have been forced to sell their home in order to pay damages of $30,000 and $5,000 in court costs awarded to the convicted thief.

The burgular sued the Brineys as a result of a wound that he received in his foot from a shotgun trap, used by the Brineys as a crime prevention device. The trap worked. They had to sell the farm to raise the money to is in little danger of becoming a drunkard. But look out pay the crook.

But don't say, "now I've heard everything" - not yet. There is more. An Iowa State Senator, it is reported, proposes to introduce two legislative bills. The first would take from the state treasury sufficient money to Limited, Santa Fe's Chief or Great Northern's Empire pay the Brineys to pay the crook. The second bill (and if you find this hard to believe, so do we) would apply to all future crimes, by having the State pay the hospital costs up to $1,000 of anyone injured during the course of committing a criminal act on life or property.

We are not entirely sure whether the reporter on the ctory indulged in a little too much anti- freeze on his way to work, or whether the state representative did the same on his way to the State House, or whether static on the people, the legislature, and the courts in Iowa have not some lotus seeds deep within a Japanese peat bog gone completely insane.

In 1938 the first minimum wage was 25 cents an hour. Now it's $1.60; proposed $2.00 or even $2.50.

Why not $10? $100? If all it takes is a law to raise wages, why not make it good - let's all have $100.

But even the people shouting the loudest know it takes much more than a law. The wage goes to a man who has to produce enough to pay it. Out of the price of what he produces has to come cost of the materials and tools he uses, taxes his employer has to pay, enough profit to keep the employer in business. What's left may then well be the worker's wages. But all the magicians in the world cannot make it larger than the value of the goods that worker produces.

So, when you talk minimum wage, be sure you talk in the same breath production to pay it.

That was three years ago. The apparatus is still there. There is only one way to shake it loose from the true pacifists. As they continue to Moratorium-ize, let them denounce atrocities in North Vietnam as well as in the South. Let them demand that the Soviets pull out of North Vietnam, Hungary and Czechoslovakia. Let them burn the black and red Ho flags just as they have been burning the American flag. Let them demand that the youth of Russia be permitted to storm the KGB (state security) headquarters just as they stormed the U. S. Department of Justice.

And Riesel finally adds that let them then see how long their unity lasts. They'll then know who are the true pacifists and who are the professional operatives. The latter will be shaken loose. We'll know who's mobilizing for what. That's not much to ask. It is an appeal to

When I ask why she does this she says she needs to learn the difference between uncommitted sex and meaningful uncommitted sex and meaningful sex. She also insists the only way she can learn if our love is real is by comparing it with other kinds of love. I believe if she really loved me she wouldn't need all this experimentation Furthermore, I don't understand "free sex". Please explain it?----

Big Q Dear Q.: There's no such thing as "free sex." Everything has a price and sex is no exception. The price YOUR girl might have to pay is the love of a young man who really cares for her. Uncommitted sex is a new name for an old game. We called it "shacking up-no called it "shacking up--no strings attached." The game was always a disappointment and, of course, the female players, then, as now were the losers. The odds always favor the dealer, honey. And when it comes to sex, the men hold the deck.

Missouri Faces Tough Big Eight Battles

Talk Is Over Action Next

NEW YORK (AP) The talking is over for Jimmy Ellis, the easy-going World Boxing Association champion. He wants action.

Monday night in Madison Square Garden when he meets Joe Frazier, champion of six states including New York, in a scheduled 15- round fight for the undisputed heavyweight title. "I'm tired of talking about the fight,". Ellis said

Thursday before completing his sparring. "It's here. He Frazier is talking. He better save his wind."

Frazier, a puncher who applies pressure by constantly moving to his opponent, said earlier in the week:

"I don't think Ellis can move away from me as fast "We'll see about that Monday night," said Ellis. "How fast he can go, how fast he can come- we'll see. He talked about me running out. I'll be there Monday night.

If anything has annoyed Ellis, it has been Frazier's charges that Ellis, until now, has been ducking a fight with him. Ellis and his manager, Angelo Dundee, are leaving nothing to chance.

Three Rivers Loses

P O P L A R BLUFF--Showing the signs of weariness after playing five basketball games in seven days, the Three Rivers junior College Raiders could do nothing right last night and lost a MJCAA league battle to Mineral Area of Flat River,

The loss dropped coach Bob Cradic's Raiders into third place with a 6-3 league mark while Mineral clung to second with a 6-2 mark behind Meramec's

MAJC's slow deliberate type of ball took its toll on the generally fast moving Raiders, who never led after Fred Johnson started the night off with a 2-0

Three Rivers got within a pair of points numerous times but just didn't have the drive to Rod Lake, the Cardinals 6-foot-7 center, ripped the Raiders defense apart as he netted 24 points on close shots while Larry Price and Ric Mueller kept the defense out by sacking up 16 and 12 markers respectively.
These two teams had met just last Saturday evening for the championship of Mineral Area invitational, which TRJC cared home with a 78-76 win.

TRJC only twice got the Cardinals running, as they did in the tournament. Mineral Area behind the ball handling and generalship of guard Jerome Freeman stayed with its game and made easy work of the Raiders before a large home crowd.

The loss dropped TRJC's record to 16-6, as it was the first setback on its home hardwood this floor in preparation for a Saturday evening visitby the league's top meramec, whom the Raiders defeated in last week's tournament.

Three Rivers scoring was scattered about seven players, with John Johnson and Roy Fields leading the Bishop added 14 for the only double figure marks.

Higher Revenue Needs Cited

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) - The Missouri Public Expenditure Survey said today Missouri's revenue shortage may be as high as $160 million next fiscal year and it urged voters to approve the income tax increase April 7.

The survey, a taxpayers' organization, said several factors have made the deficiency in funds even greater than anticipated. It named the necessity for adding $4.4 million in state funds for Medicaid and 6 million for water pollution control grants as the biggest items in the growing shortage.

The revenue gap will be widened still further, the survey said, by the need of $19 million additional funds just to keep state school aid next year at the same level as this year.

If the tax increase is approved by the voters, the survey said, it will be effective as of last Jan. 1 and will produce an estimated $106 million in added revenue for the fiscal period beginning July 1.

IOWA JUSTICE?

Months -- $5.00.

It doesn't take a newspaperman very long in the business to learn not to say, "Now I've heard everything." No sooner are the words printed when - sure enough-along comes something to top them all.

Such is the wire- service news story out of Eddyville. Iowa which, if the facts are right, is so far- out that it strains our credulity.

It appears that Mr. and Mrs. Edward Briney, of said off with a $50 fine and no jail sentence. ("Copping a reason. plea," a favorite device of experienced criminals, means that rather than stand trial and risk conviction for the intended victims, the Brineys, however, have lost their 80 either." acre farm; and they have been forced to sell their home in order to pay damages of $30,000 and $5,000 in court costs awarded to the convicted thief.

The burgular sued the Brineys as a result of a wound that he received in his foot from a shotgun trap, used by the Brineys as a crime prevention device. The trap worked. They had to sell the farm to raise the money to pay the crook.

But don't say, "now I've heard everything" - not yet. There is more. An Iowa State Senator, it is reported, proposes to introduce two legislative bills. The first pay the Brineys to pay the crook. The second bill (and if you find this hard to believe, so do we) would apply to all future crimes, by having the State pay the hospital costs up to $1,000 of anyone injured during the course of committing a criminal act on life or property.

We are not entirely sure whether the reporter on the ctory indulged in a little too much anti- freeze on his way to work, or whether the state representative did the same on his way to the State House, or whether static on the wire- service line garbled the copy. We hope that the people, the legislature, and the courts in Iowa have not some lotus seeds deep within a Japanese peat bog gone completely insane.

Heinie Henry, the sage of Chinatown says: "That the ideal wife is one who grows dearer instead of more expensive."

In 1938 the first minimum wage was 25 cents an hour. Now it's $1.60; proposed $2.00 or even $2.50.

Why not $10? $100?

If all it takes is a law to raise wages, why not make it good - let's all have $100.

But even the people shouting the loudest know it takes much more than a law. The wage goes to a man who has to produce enough to pay it. Out of the price of what he produces has to come cost of the materials and tools he uses, taxes his employer has to pay, enough profit to keep the employer in business. What's left may then well be the worker's wages. But all the magicians in the world cannot make it larger than the value of the goods that worker produces.

So, when you talk minimum wage, be sure you talk in the same breath production to pay it.

That was three years ago. The apparatus is still there. There is only one way to shake it loose from the true pacifists. As they continue to Moratorium-ize, let them denounce atrocities in North Vietnam as well as in the South. Let them demand that the Soviets pull out of North Vietnam, Hungary and Czechoslovakia. Let them demand peace demonstrations in Red Square like those they are free to run here in Washington on the mall. Let them call for free labor unions in North Vietnam, the USSR, China, Hungary and Czechoslovakia such as we have in the U.S.

Let them burn the black and red Ho flags just as they have been burning the American flag. Let them demand that the youth of Russia be permitted to storm the KGB (state security) headquarters just as they stormed the U. S. Department of Justice.

And Riesel finally adds that let them then see how long their unity lasts. They'll then know who are the true Eddyville, stopped a thief from completing the crime of pacifists and who are the professional operatives. The burgularizing their home. By that she means Best selling book, "Truth Is envelope. she is having "free sex" with several boys but she is not emotionally involved with any of them. When I ask why she does this she says she needs to learn the difference between uncommitted sex and meaningful sex. She also insists the only way she can learn if our love is real is by comparing it with other kinds of love. I believe if she really loved me she wouldn't need all this experimentation. Furthermore, I don't understand "free sex". Please explain it?----

Big Q Dear Q.: There's no such thing as "free sex." Everything has a price and sex is no exception. The price YOUR girl might have to pay is the love of a young man who really cares for her. Uncommitted sex is a new name for an old game. We called it "shacking up--no strings attached." The game always a disappointment and, of course, the female players, then, as now were the losers. The odds always favor the dealer, honey. And when it comes to sex, the men hold the deck.

Abe Lincoln Is 'Founder' Of American Democracy

NATION PAUSED yesterday to pay tribute to one of the most admired, respected and loved leaders of the country's long and prideful history.

This day comemorated the birth of Abraham Lincoln, 16th President of the United States.

Lincoln, next to Jefferson whom he admired, is the spiritual fountainhead of the philosophy of American democracy and the symbol of freedom.

His life's story is stunning in its simplicity. Born in a log cabin in poverty, painfully self-educated, rose from comparatively obscurity to national leadership in a nearly fatal crisis, saved the United States from dissolution, and at the moment of victory, was slain by an assasin.

From humble birth in 1809 to martyr's death in 1865, the life of Lincoln follows the classic lines of tragic greatness.

Lincoln occupied the center stage of history for less than half a dozen years. At the time of his nomination for the Presidency, he was so little known as a national name.

But from his emergence out of the Illinois prairie into public view, Lincoln began to fascinate observers. Nathaniel Hawthorne, when he first saw the loose-jointed and uncouth figure, thought him to be "about the homeliest man he ever saw, yet by no means repulsive or

His physical appearance was bizarre. Inordinately tall, bony, stoop-shouldered, his dark hair was coarse, his skin too shallow, his neck too scrawny, his arms too long, his hands too furrowed, and his feet too large.

But all these physical mishaps were overshadowed by his brilliance, his wit, his humanity, and his memorable display of logic and reason in the abolishment of slavery, which saved the country from possible ruin.

And so Abraham Lincoln now towers beyond

American history.

By his words he deepened the meaning of democracy, and by his actions he widened the horizons of human dignity, giving his life to a universal ideal - "that government of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish ...om the earth."
